

Adventures in Poetry Outdoors ~ for Young Children

April 25 & 27, 2023

Friends of the Candelaria Nature Preserve are offering two learning enrichment experiences that focus on child-guided, organic play with words, art and nature,

Facilitator: JC Wayne, "poet-artist adventure guide"

Number of Participating Children: Up to 10 for each event

Chaperones: Two for each event

Dates: Tuesday, April 25, 2023, 10:00-11:00 AM for children ages 6-7 yrs.
and

Thursday, April 27, 2023, 10:00-11:00 AM for children ages 8-10 yrs.

Location: Candelaria Nature Preserve

Please meet at the main gate on the west end of Arbor Rd. NW

Cost: There is no charge for participating in this event.

Materials:

- Each child should bring a small, easy-to-hand-carry notebook with hard covers.
- Friends of the Candelaria Nature Preserve will provide colored pencils for the children.

About JC Wayne, Facilitator

JC Wayne is a poet, visual artist, outdoor creativity adventure guide, and "cartographer of the unseen" with a mission of building loving worlds through loving words and art. Wayne graduated from Brown and Harvard, but considers her world travel as her true education into wisdom.

<https://poartry.org/>

For a link to a Zoom presentation by JC Wayne, please contact J. Allen, below.

About the Candelaria Nature Preserve

The Candelaria Nature Preserve comprises 167 acres of City of Albuquerque Open Space in the City's North Valley, between Rio Grande Blvd. and the Bosque Trails along the Rio Grande River. The Preserve is being transformed from over-used agricultural fields to a mosaic of habitats that will support native wildlife and provide guided nature study for visitors of all ages.

Reservations Required

Contact Jeannie Allen, President, Friends of Candelaria Nature Preserve

Email: < friendsofcandelarianaturepres@gmail.com >

Ph: 240-460-0946

